

CHEERS!

Happy birthday to us! This year, The Bride and Bloom turned one. To help us celebrate, world-renowned event designer Preston Bailey designed two spectacular tables for our event at Cooper Design Space in downtown Los Angeles. Guests enjoyed meeting Bailey in person while mingling over an array of delicious hors d'oeuvres and tasty cocktails. The evening also announced The Bride and Bloom's online virtual wedding planner (at thebrideandbloom.com), which is set to launch summer 2007.
